STETSON PLAYS THE CUBAN TEAM

FAST CUBAN NINE CAVORTS
ON OUR DIAMOND—OUR BOYS SUCCOMB.

Last Game of the Season on Local Field.

The fast team from Cuba which has been traveling thru the State playing the big league teams which are wintering here, played our baseball nine last Saturday afternoon. The Reds had no trouble in smothering the college men by a rather large score of 9-0.

The game was slow and uninteresting thruout. Stetson could find but four hits, although the ball was slammed to all parts of the field. The splendid fielding of the Cubans robbed us of several bases.

Gross fanned five of the Reds, but yielded eleven hits, which coupled with the inevitable errors, were enough to pile up nine tallies.

In the third inning we had a chance to score when Beaulieu took first on an error, Bradley singled and Gardiner walked. The sacks were full but there was one down but Lourcey fouled out and Kanner rolled to the pitcher.

Jimmy was wild in the first inning, walking two men and hitting a third. This was followed by a hit and an error and three runs came across. After this Gross settled down and retired the next three men in order.

The fourth inning was a bad one for him when five hits were gathered from his delivery. Beyond these two lapses of form our star went good even though against a team that has defeated the Phillies and the Superbas.

The Stetson Box Score:—

	AB	R	H	E
Bradley.....	4	0	1	1
Gardiner.....	2	0	0	0
Lourcey.....	3	0	0	1
Kanner.....	4	0	0	2
Gross.....	4	0	1	0
Merritt.....	4	0	1	0
Conrad.....	4	0	1	1
Beaulieu.....	2	0	0	1

BASKETBALL GAME.

The College men played the Academy boys an exhibition game of basketball in the Cummings Gymnasium Saturday evening. A rather small crowd was out. The college fellows had little difficulty in disposing of the prep lads. The basketball association is in debt and the object of this game was to release enough money to pay off this deficit.

ANNUAL GOES TO PRESS

The 1915 Oshihiyi goes to the printer in April. This issue of the Annual bids fair to be the best that has ever been put out by the college. All literature must be in at once. Order your Annuals from S. T. Wallbank or C. N. Walker.

Some women marry because they become attached to a man—and others, merely to be sure of having a man attached to them.

MISS BUCK WINS REMINGTON MEDAL.

Miss Edith Buck of Palatka after five months in shorthand department, won the Remington gold medal for speed and efficiency in typewriting. This is the first time that a Stetson student has been thus honored.

EXAMS ARE OVER.

Tuesday afternoon marked the close of the Winter Term examinations. The quizzes to which we were subjected this week were unequalled in ferocity. Verily, the profs. seemed determined to find out how little we did know.

SOME STUDENTS LEAVE SCHOOL.

Our hearts have been saddened by the untimely departure of several of the students. For various reasons a number have not been able to see their way clear to stay the year out. The following have left: Olive Link, Sue Spear, Evelyn Schaffer, Edith Buck, Lillian Arnold, Bill Hunter and Tony Bates.

OLD STUDENTS BACK.

Tillie Chapman, who took a winter term vacation, is back to receive her diploma from the College of Liberal Arts. Mary Frances Ross who was in school last year has returned for the Spring Term taking special work in the college. Mary Chappel, a member of last year's Sophomore Class, has returned for the Spring Term teachers course. Ruth Wallace has returned to complete her work in the Business College.

PHI BETA PSI HAS ANNUAL BANQUET

BRILLIANT SPEECHES, BEAUTIFUL MUSIC, AND MUCH EATS AT COLLEGE ARMS.

Province Chief of A. T. O. Unable to Arrive.

The boys of the Phi Beta Psi Fraternity held their annual banquet at the College Arms Hotel last Tuesday evening. This event has been postponed from time to time ever since Christmas waiting for the Province Chief of Alpha Tau Omega to visit the local chapter. But unavoidable circumstances have detained him and he was not present.

The guests present were Doctor and Mrs. Hulley, Doctor and Mrs. Farriss, Mr. George Coleman from Sigma Nu, Mr. A. O. Kanner from the Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity, Mr. James Dodge from Phi Kappa Delta, Miss Bessie Gum from Pi Beta Phi, and Miss Elizabeth Lewis from Delta Delta Delta.

Mr. Ruskin R. Roseborough, president of the Phi Beta Psi Fraternity acted as toastmaster, and succeeded in soliciting speeches or orations (as in the case of Kanner) from the majority of the guests present. Doctor Hulley responded in his usual splendid style and was ably followed by Doctor Farriss. Mr. Dodge, Mr. Coleman, and Mr. Kanner addressed the assembled banqueters for a few minutes; and Mr. Dineen represented the entire fraternity.

Miss Bessie Gumm, representing Pi Beta Phi, delivered a clever address which was replete with excellent wit. Miss Elizabeth Lewis, for Tri Delta, spoke most entertainingly, wishing the local success in its petition to A. T. O.

The boys were doomed to disappointment in their hopes of having some representative of the Alpha Tau Omega on hand. Mr. Harry Klinger was called out of town, and he is the only resident A. T. O. The University of Florida was unable to send a representative because of term exams. And the Province Chief failed to put in an appearance. However, the banquet was an entire success and reflected much credit upon the members of the local club.

PHI DELTA ALPHA INSTALLED

The local legal fraternity which was organized here last Fall and which received the glad news a few weeks ago that it had won a charter from the Phi Alpha Delta, will be installed this week-end. A very extensive program of enjoyment has been arranged. Friday afternoon the Tri-Deltas entertain the lawyers at a tea. Friday evening the members of the local will be initiated into the mysteries of the national organization. Saturday morning the Sigma Nus entertain at their house at 10 o'clock. Dr. Hulley gives a garden party in honor of the law fraternity men from three to five on Saturday afternoon. In the evening the new Phi Alpha Deltas will indulge in a stag banquet.

In our next issue we will give the details of the installation of Phi Alpha Delta at our school.

STETSON ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION MAKES STATEMENT

Being brought forth from the state of supreme lethargy that has characterized it thruout the entire year, the Oratorical Association has at last roused itself to announce that some time during the Spring Term there will be held the Annual Gold Medal Oratorical Contest. At least there is supposed to be a gold medal attached. Last year it failed signally to put in any appearance. It is to be hoped that this season one can be scraped up from some quarter.

DRYS HAVE CONTEST.

On Monday evening, April 8, the Prohibition Oratorical Association will hold its annual contest. Last year it was won by A. M. R. Lawrence and the State contest was held at Southern. We understand that a number of excellent speakers will contest for the honor of representing Stetson this year at the State contest which is to be held at Columbia College. Admission is free and all are invited.

VARSITY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The Election Committee of the Varsity Club has elected the following officers for the Spring Term:—

President—T. I. Deane.
Vice-President—Elmer S. Varn.
Secretary-Treasurer—B. Hulley.
Program Manager—C. N. Walker.

DEBATE ARRANGED WITH SOUTHERN

STETSON TO GO TO SOUTHERN COLLEGE TO DEBATE ON MAY 7.

After Long Delay Southern Proposes Subject for Debate. 4-2-15

After delaying the matter for some three months Southern College has sent the question for the second Intercollegiate debate between Stetson and that institution. No reason was given for this long delay. It is obvious that Southern has had all these months to thoroly train her team. The team, we have been informed, was picked soon after Christmas. This does not smack of good business at all and is really unfair to Stetson. However, the debate is the chief thing and we can afford to forego any objection in order that the movement of intercollegiate debating which had its inception last year may be continued.

The team which will represent Stetson will be chosen from the best two debators, who will speak in the Inter Society Debate next Friday evening. Three men from the Kent Club and three from the Varsity will be contestants for the honor of representing Stetson. The two men will probably be chosen by a committee of five men of whom three will be judges also of the debate itself.

The following is the contract with Southern:—

- 1.—Subject, "Resolved: That Increased Governmental Regulation of Business Would Be Detrimental to the Best Interests of the People."
- 2.—Debate to be held at Southern College.
- 3.—Two speakers to a side.
- 4.—Speakers to be allowed 23 minutes each as follows:—
1st affir.—18 minutes
1st neg.—18 minutes
2d affir.—23 minutes
2d neg.—23 minutes
1st neg. reb. 5 minutes
1st affir. reb 5 min.
- 5.—Judges to be three in number—one to be chosen by Stetson, one to be chosen by Southern, and two judges thus selected to choose the third judge.
- 6.—All expenses to and from Southerland, and entertainment while guests of Southern, to be paid by Southern College.
- 7.—The debate to be held at 7:00 P. M., Friday, May 7, 1915.
- 8.—Debate subject to change at ten 10-days notice by either party.

BASEBALL SEASON IS PROBABLY OVER

The game with the Cuban Reds will probably be the last in this year's schedule. Two games were to have been played with Keewatin at St. Augustine, but our team will be more or less broken up after the end of the Winter Term and the Coach says that it is doubtful whether any more games will be played.

EDITORIAL

We are especially glad to receive the challenge from Southern College. This matter has been postponed so long by our friends in South Florida that we had begun to suspect that they were intending to let the year pass without living up to their tentative agreement last spring.

The question submitted for debate we have printed on another page. It is a good, live one. However, it is hardly definite enough. Does it mean that the increased regulation of the past is detrimental or does it mean that any further increase will be detrimental—but that as it now stands, things are alright. The use of the subjunctive "would" is misleading. It might be well to settle the exact interpretation of the subject before signing the contract.

Last year the President of the Stetson Oratorical Association exercised himself to arrange a Triangular Debating League in this State between Stetson, Southern, and Florida. He was manifestly unsuccessful, however. Florida would not even go so far as to reply. Southern was more amiable and after much dickering agreed to debate us if we would bring them up here first. This was done and the matter of intercollegiate debating was fairly launched in Florida. We now recommend to the present president of the S. O. A. that he try to arrange some such league with the colleges of this State. The precedent of last year should help. The ice has been broken. We see no reason why something cannot be done.

FROM ONE OF THE NORMALS

Miss Ireland, one of the normals, heard before coming to Stetson that they would be called "nor-mules," but she asserts as reports Parson Walker (and he sits by her and should know) that she will not kick.

Mr. Rubert J. Longstreet,
Editor Collegiate, DeLand, Fla.
Dear Sir:—

Some weeks ago while reading the Florida Alligator I was forcibly reminded of the fact that we used to have at old Stetson the Collegiate and I remitted to Dr. Hulley a small sum and asked if it still existed to send the same to me. I have enjoyed the same very much.

Yesterday afternoon while reading the Collegiate I was forcibly reminded of certain facts in your editorial entitled "Stetson Eight Years Ago."

While reading the Collegiate I never find the name of a student that I knew although there are quite a few members of the faculty that I knew well.

Even Dr. Hulley entered on his term as President the last year I was there.

I appreciate the Collegiate very much and want to commend the seeming spirit of the editors of the same to speak their minds openly (of course not disrespectfully). In my opinion the students should have the right of free speech, petition, etc., and I have noticed this being done at Stetson for the first time.

This is not done because I was not properly treated or any thing of the sort but as a matter of fact for I was the Valedictorian of my class when I received the degree of LL.B. in 1906, just prior to my seventeenth birthday.

I think you are turning out an excellent sheet for I know what a college paper has to contend with in regards to finances and other troublesome matters.

I have never had the pleasure of meeting you but as I have attended a number of colleges including a course in the U. of Chicago after leaving Stetson and as this old world has used me right well in and out of college, and knowing how one in college likes a word of congratulation or commendation, I take pleasure in writing you these lines.

I wish I was able to tell you to hand my regards to the boys, but as I have no recollection of any of your students named I am feeling really old.

I beg to remain with very kind regards,

Very respectfully,
F. Y. Smith.

(Editor's Note:—We appreciate the very kind words of this loyal alumnus. It would be a most excellent plan if more of the graduates of Stetson would let us know where they are and what they are doing. Just because they have graduated is no sign that we are not interested in them and in their welfare. We newer Stetson men are always glad to hear from some older man who was here years ago and has gone out into the world to make good. That is what is expected of every Stetson man and woman. So wake up Alumni, and let us hear from you. This does not refer to the recent grads but those of the classes of '07, '08 and along there.)

DEPARTMENT OF AUNTY SPHINX AND UNCLE SOCRATES

Dear Aunty Sphinx:—

There is a pretty little yellow-haired girl in this institution with whom I am more or less in love. I am convinced that I have won her heart for she smiles every time that we meet. Now what I want to know is this: Should I go with other girls when I like this one so much and when she likes me?—I am popular with the girls and could get a date with any girl in school. But if I have made this little woman center her affections in me, I feel that I should not tempt the hearts of any others. Please advise me. Am I under any moral obligation to favor the golden head by going with her only?

Percy Walgernon.

Answer:—

It seems to me that your difficulty lies in determining to what extent the little woman's affections are involved and this hinges on the smile. Observe this closely, and analyze the elements which compose it. Are you perfectly sure that this is entirely a smile of fondness, and adoration? Are you sure that there is not an element of amusement? It might be possible that your nose (pardon the personal allusion but it is necessary in clearly setting forth the case) or your tie or even your feet (again pardon us) might excite her sense of the ludicrous. To test this theory, remove any possibly ludicrous feature and watch the effect and the smile. In this smile analysis we might recommend "Smiles I have Met" by Dean Archy Smith. Furthermore, owing to this period of investigation and indecision, the only humane thing and the only gentlemanly course for you is to be perfectly sure that no other girls are subjugated to your fascinating influence. We might even suggest the slight disfigurement of a red moustache or lavender socks.

Heart-to-heart talks between platonic friends are so apt to lead to lip-to-lip silences that Plato never dreamed of.

APRIL FIRST IN CHAUDOIN

Being forbidden by the laws of the Medes and Persians which alter not, to indulge in anything novel or dangerous, the fair prisoners of Chaudoin usurped enough authority Thursday morning to engage in a surreptitious interchange of apparel. This is in accordance with time honored custom, and we are charmed that the worthy dean permits such exuberance.

Quite a disturbance (which is to be sure flagitious) was created when Margaret Blocker rushed into the dining room clad in the raiment of Mabel Eldredge, and demurely took a seat by the renowned and austere Bee Franklyne (I think that is the correct spelling of the euphonious cognomen this year; it will change next with the style). Marena Harvey arrayed in the charming, graceful and flowing gown which characterizes Pork and Beans on the campus, Irene Smith cultivating the winsome smile of Frauline Bangs, Frances Sparber officiating as Miss Sinnott, and many other startling species of metamorphosis were visible.

Many of the damsels meandered to chapel clad in these many changes of raiment, and caused Dean Carson a series of confusions in calling the roll. Helen Drew created a sensation by her clever impersonation of Miss Denny. Other excellent make-ups were those of Miss Graddick in Friskie's apparel, Miss Ramsey set forth as A. J.'s friend, and Mildred Smith, as Mmle. Whiting.

If a man would exercise as much care and intelligence in picking out a wife as he does in the selection of a stenographer, marriage would run almost as smoothly and pleasantly as a business office.

You can always cure a man of love-sickness with "mental suggestion" by merely suggesting to him that the girl is trying to marry him.

The kind of man who tries to kiss every pretty girl he meets at a summer resort would cheerfully smoke a cabbage and not know it from a Havana.

Before marriage, a man has a vague idea that a girl's clothes grow on her; and, after marriage, he expects her to go right on producing them in the same inexpensive way.

Most men go into a flirtation for the sake of accumulating experience; and find, to their astonishment, that they have accumulated a wife.

Money may not be able to buy love; but it will sometimes buy a perfectly good imitation, guaranteed to outlast the real thing and to deceive an expert.

A woman seldom has time to join a "Don't Worry" club unless she has a hard-working husband somewhere down town to do the worrying for her.

Of course, nobody believes in a personal devil nowadays, but sometimes a wife has to use a lot of mental science in order to persuade herself that she didn't marry one.

So versatile is a man's heart at this time of the year that he can be dead in love with one girl and at the same time acutely alive to the charms of half a dozen others in the same summer hotel.

Glad He Was Right.

Charles Cochran, who arranged the recent big boxing matches and the Wonder Zoo at Olympia, London, recently told this circus story:

A crowd of little boys was standing about the entrance of a traveling circus, each trying to get a glimpse of the wonders within. An elderly gentleman, who looked as kind hearted and benevolent as Father Christmas, happened to be passing. He stopped and smiled first at the boys and then at the man guarding the entrance. The man smiled back, and so did the boys. Then, as he put his hand in his trousers pocket the old gentleman said to the attendant:

"Let all those boys in and count them as they pass."

There was a chorus of "Oh, thank you sir!" from the grateful boys, and the attendant counted steadily as they trooped in. As the last boy disappeared within the tent he turned to the kind old gentleman.

"Thirty, sir," he said.

"That's good!" said the old gentleman happily, "I guessed just right." Then he continued to walk.

Sailor's Paradise.

"Fiddler's Green" is the Elysium of the sailors; a land with rum and lime juice; a place of perpetual music, mirth, dancing and tobacco.

Marriage is like a book by Bernard Shaw; the preface is often the most interesting and delightful thing about it.

Flirting is to a coquette what wine is to a toper; she is always "going to give it up," but she never does until the last drop in the cup of youth is drained and Time has turned out the love-light.

A man who would not sign a hundred dollar business contract without reading it over three times and showing it to his lawyer will sign a marriage contract involving his life, his fortune, his happiness, his honor his freedom, without even glancing at it.

How can a fellow study when so many shows come to town? We either have to sell tickets, rush the scenery, post posters, or tend the guy ropes to the tent—got to do something to get in.

Harry Klinger has developed into a worthy emulator of Isaac Walton and woos unwary members of the finny tribe at St. Johns.

—Dr. Sparks, who was our Presentation Day Orator on February 19, spoke at Bucknell on his way South.

—The St. Mary's Muse appears semi-monthly in regular issues with four magazine numbers in the course of the year.

—the Clearwater High School has just started its school paper. We wish it success.
